

subjects, when required by various clubs and individuals.

I would suggest that the Mayor and the Chief of Police be asked to co-operate, when necessary, in the matter of delinquent borrowers. The State law requires that a book be returned within thirty days, or a fine may be imposed by the Mayor.

There seems to be a general and increasing interest in the Library, and a genuine appreciation of our efforts.

It is my hope that the future will reward the past in accomplishment.

I wish to thank our President, Mr. Hippe, and Mrs. Hippe, too, and each of the Directors for their unfailing interest and helpfulness.

Respectfully submitted,

Maud D. Johnson,
Librarian.

Mr. Huffy moved that the report of the Librarian be accepted; seconded by Mr. Evans and carried.
